Biomass, biogas and beyond - The Danish-German framework

The German-Danish Chamber of Commerce invites you to an exciting conference on bioenergy in Denmark and Germany. The conference will be held in cooperation with the Innovation Network for Biomass (INBIOM) and DI Bioenergy.

Discuss the potential of the industry, hear about the current development of biomass/biogas and learn about the new legal framework in Germany. Broaden your network and use the opportunity to meet interesting companies and important stakeholders.

Participation is free of charge.
